SATURDAY MORNING, NOV 5, 1864

NATIONAL UNION NOMINATIONS.

For President,
ABRAHAM LINCOLN,
Of Illinois.

For Vice-President,
ANDREW JOHNSON,
Of Tennessee

For Presidential Electors,
GEORGE L. WOODS, of Wasco County,
[illegible] GEORGE, of Linn County,
J. F. GAZLEY, of Douglas County

The Result.—We have to know the first man who is possessed of good ordinary common sense, that claims or even pretends to claim in the presence of men as intelligent as himself that a doubt exists of Lincoln's election and McClellan's defeat.

Least of all does any man pretend to claim that Oregon will fail to wheel into line with the loyal States and give her vote for the Union Electors.

It is only a question of majorities and results. There are threats being made and secret organizations being perfected, even in this city, for the purpose of opposing the Administration and embarrassing the progress of the war.

We are told there will be "war at home" in the case of Lincoln's election. We doubt it much. The men who have avoided the conflict thus long, who have remained at home to vote instead of meeting the enemy in the field, are not so enamored of war as to voluntarily commence it now. They value their lives for the privilege it gives them of voting, and they will wish to live as long and vote as often as the so-called Democracy have use for their efficient services.

But while threats are making—only a minority to be sure threatening the majority—let us be watchful, not so much from fear as from love of justice. Let us spot the men who utter such treasonable threats, and whenever they violate the provisions of the law, let us teach them to respect it.

Americans have been learning for a few years past to quell rebellion, and should occasion offer they can crush it in the North as well as in the South.

There are traitors in the North, no one need deny that; there are gross traitors among us, though we can congratulate ourselves that they are in a great minority, even of the friends of "Little Mac."

Lincoln will be re-elected. His second Administration will complete the suppression of the rebellion, and his name will be handed down on the pages of history to show a Nation's grateful appreciation. Let us strive that ours shall at least be known, as having supported a great and good man in his wise and patriotic course.

The news of the week is favorable to the Union armies in every direction.

In the West Price has fled from disaster, and his intention of sweeping through Missouri and Kansas like a besom of destruction has not only been foiled and proved abortive, but the Union armies hurled him back Southward in dismay and consternation, in utter demoralization and defeat.

Sherman is safe, his communications open, while he stands ready to inflict crushing blows whenever he can catch Hood standing still long enough to receive them.

Grant is master of the situation around Richmond and Petersburg, and has lately made a movement with perfect success by which he has obtained great advantages, and turned some of the enemy's advanced works to his own use. It is claimed by Vance, the rebel Governor of North Carolina, that Grant has a trap set which he will spring as soon as he has coaxed enough of the enemy inside of it. May it close soon!

The Need of Men in the South.—Governor Letcher, of Virginia, issued a proclamation over a month ago instructing officers regarding their duties in the matter of arresting conscripts. He urges the great necessity for reinforcing the rebel armies, to meet the increased levies of the Union, and he gives to civil officers charged with the duty of arresting and coercing unwilling conscripts the following sharp hint:

The State must have the service of her able bodied men, and delinquents must be brought back to their duty, or those neglecting to arrest them must take their places.

He threatens to revoke the exempt certificates issued to justices of the peace and other county officers, unless this warning is heeded. As many of the so-called "delinquents" are said to have taken to the woods with arms in their hands, the chances of the civil officers being shot are about equal, whether they perform or neglect their duty. Pleasant country, Dixie!

Patriotic Songs.—Does the Democratic party ever sing patriotic songs? Come to our Union Club Room at one of our evening gatherings, and you hear hundreds of voices swelling the chorus of "Rally Round the Flag, Boys," and you see that they go into the conflict with the light of battle on their faces; genuine and springing from hearts that are fired with patriotic impulse. No! the idea of a Copperhead song is absurd; they and the rebel armies march to the tune of the "Bonnie Blue Flag" and "Dixie." Let them march together; we will outflank them yet.

Vallandigham framed the platform adopted by the Chicago Democratic Convention. In a speech at Dayton, Ohio, he gives an interpretation of it to be "for immediate and unconditional peace," that upon the election of McClellan war will cease, there will be no bloodshed, no more tax, no more draft, no more debt, etc. If it were not so he says Lincoln would be as acceptable to him as McClellan.

Governor Gibbs is not in his usual health and will not be able to fulfill appointments made for speaking previous to the election. He was unable to go to Oregon City on Thursday as was expected. We are happy to see him out, though unable to travel far.

Dalles Ahoy!—David Logan [illegible] is expected to arrive at that place by Monday evening's boat, and will wake up [illegible] and Johnson. You all know what he can do [illegible] and hear him!

McClellan continues to draw his salary as a Major General of the United States army.

A [illegible]—[illegible] a general [illegible] of the unterrified McClellan Democracy have come to grief—[illegible] their natural born lives [illegible] more than the natural amount of copperhead moral honesty. The only thing we object to in the matter is that according to our notions a [illegible] is much better than he is made, and we object to the [illegible] being sent to prison for [illegible]. Two villains were found guilty of tampering with [illegible]

[illegible] the loyal sentiment of the New York State volunteers expressed in their ballots [illegible] ing the names of Lincoln and Johnson with the Union nominees for electors of that State they were followed by the counterfeit nominees for the same position. Mark this, that this damnable act was done by Democrats appointed to act as agents of New York State by its Democratic Governor. This fixes the crime on that party. Was ever treason worse than this? Did ever a political party become so debased before as to perpetrate such a villainy as this—to attempt to defeat the expression of a soldier's will uttered on the battle ground, to make him a [illegible] to himself at home? Moral honesty does not belong to the party. Mark, all decency they do not even stop to affect. When the rebellion [illegible] then they [illegible], and when Richmond falls McClellan's sun [illegible] set. Will you countenance them, and have your name linked with the infamy that will eternally brand Southern treason and Northern sympathy? No! Rally around the flag with us, and we will together wipe treason and copperhead Democracy from the face of the earth.

Who Stephens War.—General John Logan is an Abolitionist,—that is, he believes in abolishing the cause of the war, thinking our war enough to fight out because of slavery.

General Rosecrans writes: "Take off thy coat McClellan," meaning his coat as a soldier of the Union.

General Hooker says McClellan has two chances of being struck by lightning, to one of ever being President.

General McDowell says little Mac's character is summed up in two words: "Wickedly ambitious." Rather heavy words.

General Sheridan whips early both early and late, which hurts little Mac every time just as much as the other fellow.

General McClernand opposes the rebellion both North and South.

General Meagher asks the would-be Democracy to accept his apology.

None of the copperheads claim that General Sigel would take their ticket.

General Sherman hasn't changed his base, and still opposes Hood, and is not to be hoodwinked by peace platforms.

General Wool is sound on the Union, and there seems little show for McClellan to recruit his failing fortunes with names of many general officers of the United States. It is just as well for them not to try it on any more.

Major General John A. Logan, a life-long Democrat and for many years a Representative in Congress from the "Egyptian" district of Illinois, was earnestly solicited by John B. Haskin, of New York, to become a candidate on the copperhead ticket for Vice president. His reply was:

That he did not train with that crowd; that he was a War Democrat, not a peace sneak; that he was opposed to bowing down and supplicating for forgiveness at the feet of Jeff Davis; that he was for an honorable, permanent peace, which could only be obtained by overthrowing armed rebellion, and compelling the insurgents to yield obedience to the Constitution and the laws; and that he would never consent to make peace on any terms that did not embrace a complete restoration of the Union in all its territorial integrity.

Good for John! He is now in the Union army, has been severely wounded twice at the storming of Fort Donelson and at Shiloh, and promoted from Colonel to Brigadier General, and from that to Major General, for gallant and meritorious service. He is as true as steel, and was the General who declared to his soldiers that they must hew their way with their swords to the Gulf of Mexico.

Just What We Say.—Mr. Nesmith's letter says the Oregon Statesman furnishes us another quotation:

"The hue and cry raised against Mr. Lincoln is a howl of [illegible] to political effect, and is having its influence. It would illy become me to join in his condemnation for those acts, particularly after having sanctioned at least some of them in the Senate, besides General McClellan is [illegible] the Maryland Legislature."

Therein, the Senator differs from the rest of the copperheads. Don't Nesmith's letter comfort you cops? But don't get irritated because we quote him against you.

An Opinion.—The following is an extract from a letter of a gentleman who is not a politician and has heretofore taken no part in political affairs, who happened to be in Chicago at the time the so called Democratic National Convention was in session:

"I was in Chicago during the late Democratic National Convention, and must write of it that it was such an assemblage as I never, never wish to see again. Treason, most dark and damning treason, was there talked and acted such as I never believed any person or party gathered under the broad folds of the glorious old flag could be capable of. Not one word of praise had they for the brave and heroic dead who have given up their all that their country may live. Not one word of condemnation for those who have betrayed their country. I hope I shall never see another body of men whose every act stamp them as enemies of a land which has enriched and protected them."

A Demoralized Broom Ranger.—One of the "neat, respectable looking" Broom Rangers, a fair sample of nine-tenths of the crew, got demoralized on Saturday evening, and put up at one of our hotels. The next morning when the landlord called for his bill the Broom Ranger was bankrupt, and mine host, to get even, was under the necessity of confiscating the Ranger's broom. On hearing of the misfortune to the poor fellow we sent for the insignia of Democratic principle, but we were too late. The leaders had probably got track of the demoralized [illegible] and sent him to redeem the precious relic.—Marysville Appeal.

Copperheads Stand the Company.—The Gold Hill News, of September 28th, is responsible for the following:

On last Saturday evening, as the Broom Rangers were forming in the street, [illegible] an American citizen of African descent if he would like to earn five dollars by carrying one of the transparencies. "Well," quoth the colored brother, "I could see any [illegible] I wouldn't mind [illegible] but I can't travel in such company as them people."

The [illegible] Copperhead [illegible]

[illegible] McClellan [illegible] election. [illegible]

The Dayton Empire says that Fernando Wood in a [illegible] speech [illegible] in that city [illegible] could stop the bloodshed that is now afflicting the country, he would [illegible]. An appreciative Irishman in the crowd earnestly responded: "It would be [illegible]."

[illegible] Nov [illegible]—Five hundred of the 4th Missouri and Kansas militia defeated a [illegible] force of Texas Rangers at Camden a few days ago. Our loss [illegible]; the enemy's 27.

Albany, Nov [illegible]—[illegible] Seymour has issued a proclamation [illegible] the coming election, in which he [illegible] the Sheriffs and other officers whose duty it is to keep the peace [illegible] a free ballot [illegible] no military or other organization shall be allowed to show themselves [illegible] must exercise the full force of law and call forth all needed [illegible] their orders.

New York, Nov [illegible]—The Democratic [illegible]

Whereas [illegible] the country [illegible] party [illegible] acting from treasonable motive, are aiding the rebels, and as all true Democrats [illegible] by loyalty to the Government [illegible] thereon.

Resolved, That we as Democrats will sustain, as we accept with entire unanimity, the pledge of battle [illegible] we will loyally carry it through [illegible] found [illegible]

Resolved, [illegible] experience [illegible] we believe the war at present is being prosecuted with [illegible] energy [illegible]

Resolved, We do not admit the war to have been in any respect a failure, [illegible] the greater portion of the rebellion [illegible] recovered, and all but a few vessels of the rebel navy destroyed.

Resolved, [illegible]

Resolved, That no Nation has ever been [illegible] conduct such a conflict as has disturbed our country without financial pressure. [illegible]

Resolved, That we therefore urge on the Democrats to sustain the Government [illegible] coming election [illegible]

New York, Nov 3—[illegible] gives an account of the destruction of the rebel ram Albemarle by Lieutenant Cushing [illegible] which surrounded the ram, and by the [illegible] a number of [illegible] body of soldiers thronging the wharf and [illegible] away at his boat as it approached. He discharged a howitzer load of canister [illegible] making a complete [illegible] musketry fire at less than 30 yards. He came around, [illegible] under full [illegible] struck the floating guard of timbers and pressed them in towards the hull of the ram. [illegible] headway [illegible] muskets and pistol almost in his face from the ports of the ram and from the bank on shore; several of his men were wounded. Seizing then the lanyard of the torpedo [illegible] brought the torpedo under the overhang of the ram, detached it, pulled the lanyard and exploded the torpedo directly under the vessel on the port side below the [illegible]. At [illegible] Brooks rifle gun, which was at the same moment discharged at the boat. An immense volume of water was thrown up by the explosion of the torpedo, almost drowning the boat. A heavy [illegible] from the enemy's gun had gone through the bottom of his boat, knocking the splinters in terrible style, and she immediately began to fill, when Cushing ordered all hands to save themselves the best they could. He jumped into the river, followed by those of the men able to do so. All struck for the middle of the river under a hot fire of musketry. Cushing heard the rebels take the boats and push after the survivors, demanding them to surrender. Two of his men drowned near him. How many fell into the rebel hands is unknown. Cushing swam down the river half a mile and reached the shore about daylight. He crawled through the swamp until within speaking distance of the enemy's fort. While there several officers walked by. From conversation he learned the [illegible]. Before midnight he secured the services of a negro to go back and look after the Albemarle. The negro soon returned and reported her sunk. Cushing then struck through the swamp in his stocking feet until he reached a point six miles below town, where he took a boat and put off for the squadron, twelve miles distant, which he reached in safety.

Cushing's report says the distance from the mouth of the river to the ram was eight miles. He succeeded in passing the pickets stationed along the river, and wasn't hailed except by the lookouts on the ram.

Present Attitude of Irish Citizens.—Four or five months ago, when we began to allude to the apparent attitude of the Catholic Church in California in relation to the American Union, we were vehemently reproved for "dragging religion into politics." The whole tribe of Copperhead newspaper insects began to buzz; we were accused of sacrilegiously attacking the Roman Catholic faith; many a faithful Union man and journalist expressed an earnest apprehension that we would injure the party, and would drive away citizens of Irish birth and Catholic faith, who might otherwise vote the Union ticket. [illegible] At that time it was generally believed that the great body of the Catholic Irish were [illegible] not against the question [illegible] bring out the truth. Knowing [illegible] that the truth, though never having been a Catholic, [illegible] we thought it impossible that enlightened people [illegible] be an [illegible] of which the [illegible] human slavery [illegible]

[illegible] The New [illegible] McClellan [illegible] following:

We were [illegible] McClellan [illegible] that he had never heard of General Grant. [illegible] McClellan [illegible] the Chicago Convention for President, in that Convention its platform [illegible] claimed its sympathy with the army and navy. Its candidate is therefore expected to give expression to that sympathy in his speech, and this General McClellan is understood to have [illegible]. He spoke of Sheridan, Sherman, and [illegible]; but he very strangely omitted the greatest of all—General Grant. [illegible] General McClellan [illegible] his own portion in achievements [illegible] the position that General Grant now occupies [illegible] East and West, North and South [illegible]. But whether or not General McClellan ever heard of the existence of this General, [illegible] the universal opinion of the people of this country, that there is such a man. It is believed that this General fought a great battle at Fort Donelson quite early in the war, and achieved a great victory there, capturing [illegible] prisoners. It is asserted that he captured the rebel stronghold of Vicksburg with thirty thousand prisoners and gained a great battle at Chattanooga the same year. [illegible] What has he been [illegible]?

Doctor Breckinridge and Lincoln.—The Rev. Dr. Breckinridge thus describes Lincoln:

You all remember Henry Clay; the greatness [illegible] of his character was that he was a [illegible] specimen of the American citizen. [Cheers.] That was the reason of the [illegible] cherished for him by the people. Lincoln, with not all the talent of Clay, [illegible] the advantages of education [illegible]. He is a favorable specimen of the great mass of the people, and your political leaders know it, and that is the reason they [illegible] [Great cheers.] It's the [illegible] people who feel that he is one of them, and that he loves them, that forces him, despite of newspapers and politicians, upon the public mind [illegible] place.

The Discovery of the Bay of San Francisco.—It is stated that the bay of San Francisco was first discovered in the month of October 1769 by Don Juan [illegible], who had started from San Diego on the 14th of July previous at the head of a party of soldiers with instructions to found a Mission on the Bay of Monterey. Coming northward, he passed that bay near the mouth of the Salinas river, and finding no harbor there he determined to continue his journey in the hope of finding a better site for a Mission. He found a magnificent bay, believed that he was the first white man to discover it, and named it after the founder of his monastic order San Francisco. Thus it was that the Bay obtained the name which it still has, and which has been communicated to the Mission and the city.—Marysville Appeal.

AS A SPRING REMEDY to purify and cleanse the Blood leaving it free from all humors and impurities, we

BOILS.
WE READ THAT ONE OF the sorest afflictions that the patient Job was called upon to bear was that of boils, and they have been found to be, from that time to the present, the most troublesome and painful of visitors. We have known instances where individuals were sure to have these eruptions break out upon them once a month at least. They show an [illegible] state of the blood, and that humor of some kind is lurking there, and the surplus of corruption is actually forced to the surface of the body, and [illegible] appearance in the form of Boils. Now, is it not best at once to purify the system? Do you ask what will do this? We answer, Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup. It is curing humors in every form, and there is not a State in the Union where it has not accomplished the most astonishing cures.

RATHER CHEAPLY SOLD.—There never was a greater surprise afflicted on two accomplished demagogues than chanced on Front street a day or two ago, when a substantial friend of ours was called on to be his assessed proportion of the expenses of the present campaign. "Well, we have come on a matter of business; looking you up, you see." And with this as an introduction to an invitation for a "nip," followed by: "We have put you down for about $25, to help the thing along, that's about your share." Now, anybody almost would have shelled out $25, on suspicion, twenties are so plenty just now, but our friend was of an inquisitive turn of mind, and called for a "bill of particulars," when it was found that the $25 was needed for McClellan's help. Urging another "nip" and while our friend holds his glass in hand, hear him say: "Gentlemen, I think you've waked up the wrong passenger this time. I go my pile on Abe and Andy." This is the crisis of the story. "You that have tears to shed prepare to shed them now."

A SURPRISE OF OUR CAMP.—Busy times in the office yesterday afternoon, all hands at work, the type went click, click, click, as they were made to change their base from their resting places in the cases, and were whirled rapidly into solid columns, and presented a face to the enemy of the Union in the shape of wholesome Union sentiment. At this interesting juncture, the office door opened, and our force was out-generaled, out-manœuvred, and outflanked by one singled individual, who presented himself and proceeded to move on our works. There was no use in resistance. We were threatened by dangerous looking instruments, numbering two, large enough for rebel torpedoes, and shaped like bottles, as near as we can recollect; only, that the muzzles were inclined to be small. We were very generously treated, after our surrender, and finally took the charges out of the guns and destroyed the accompanying stores in the rational way. If we have any friends we refer them to the matrimonial advance on Sauvies' Island, and will only say, go thou and do likewise.

AN EXTRAORDINARY VERDICT.—We are not given to criticisms on the opinions of juries, because it is generally admitted everywhere that a verdict of our countrymen in almost any case bears with it the intent and meaning of "Justice;" but we are somewhat staggered at the recent verdict in the case of the man put upon trial in Vancouver for the murder of Sullivan at the Cascades. Mr. Sullivan was Sheriff of Skamania county, W. T., and in the discharge of his official duties was killed outright, in cold blood. Mr. J. P. Dennison, who was assisting him in those obligations to preserve the peace, was also murdered, and the two victims now lie cold in their graves near this city, while the perpetrators of the foul act are turned loose upon the community scott free, not guilty. We have a right to, and we do, seriously question the justice of that verdict.

TO BE NATURALIZED.—The County Court will meet in this city on Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, at which time every person who is entitled and wishes to become an American citizen and who loves our institutions, believes in the Government is willing to fight as may be required, to crush the rebellion, and who has two witnesses that he is a man of good [illegible], and has resided five years in the United States, should appear in Court with his witnesses. It only requires about ten minutes time, and a small cost, but there is very little use of any one [illegible] not possess each of the above qualifications making his appearance.

FINE DAY.—We, of this region, have been in the enjoyment of most magnificent weather, for the past part of the week. The days were sunshiny and warm, while the nights were none too cool [illegible] agreeable. This state of things was decidedly [illegible] to our street improvements, which are going on in the way of grades throughout many portions of the city. But yesterday we were treated with a rain storm that effectually [illegible] our poetical allusions to clear skies, notwithstanding the fact that the sun shone a part of the day. The newly graded streets were very soft.

A NEW CHURCH EDIFICE.—The ladies of the Methodist Society in this city, at a recent meeting resolved to hold a Fair on the Thursday before Christmas, December 22d, the proceeds to be appropriated toward a fund for the erection of a new church edifice for that society. Arrangements will soon be perfected, it is thought, for regular contributions for this specific purpose, and in about two years we may congratulate our Methodist friends upon their having a fine brick to worship in.

ONE ARRESTED.—Night before last Deputy Marshal Donahue arrested a man on Front street who was too loud-mouthed in his heart-felt cheers for Jeff Davis, and took him to the County Jail for safe keeping, as he was followed by half a dozen [illegible] who threatened to release their pet. The matter was brought before Recorder McCoy yesterday, and the defendant fined $10 and costs, [illegible]

THE STEAMSHIP.—In order to accommodate shippers the steamship Sierra Nevada did not leave as advertised yesterday. Nearly 400 tons of freight were shipped with this vessel, all Oregon produce; 28 cabin passengers; 62 steerage, and treasure as follows: Wells, Fargo & Co. $170,000, Ladd & Tilton $20,000, outside parties $10,000—total $200,000. The steamship leaves this morning at six o'clock.

TORCH LIGHT PROCESSION.—This evening there will be a torch light procession of the Union men of Portland, and vicinity, and speaking at Willamette Theatre by David Logan, Esq. All are invited to attend. The procession will form at the Abe and Andy club room, and march through the principal streets, headed by the Brass Band, and halt at the place of speaking. Union men are requested to rally at 6 o'clock P. M.

A BENEFACTOR.—Mr. A. B. Richardson, the [illegible] auctioneer, has set many a young, or newly married couple, to house keeping, by selling them [illegible] at liberal rates. He will start several in that way to-day, if they will only visit his room at the corner of Oak and Front streets, and bid on the [illegible] he has to offer them.

THE SECOND CROP.—Mr. J. Rines, of this city, left at our office yesterday a twig of an apple tree which bears fruit of the second crop this year. The variety is of the Red June, but owing to the lateness of the season we have christened these November Brides.

[illegible] Verions hold a meeting at their Hall to-morrow, at one o'clock P. M.

The first effect of a bilious climate upon the human system is to produce torpor and inactivity of the Liver, thereby preventing the natural and free discharge of bile. All know the lurking nature of the poison that produces Fever and Ague and its kindred diseases. A sallow complexion, capricious appetite, and occasional pain in the side, are often the only symptoms to warn of impending danger. The operation of Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue is to counteract this miasmal influence, by producing activity of the biliary organs, and a healthy discharge of bile from the system.

CELEBRATED
STOMACH BITTERS.

THE OPERATION OF THIS PALATABLE REMEDY upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its tonic and invigorating properties.

Invigorate the System.
Vigorous digestion and pure bile produce nutricious blood, and nutritious blood a healthy frame. Does the victim of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified?

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters
Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system, regulating the secretions and excretions, giving tone to the animal juices which dissolve the food, strengthen every relaxed nerve, muscle and fibre, and brings the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

Strengthen the System.
The best means of imparting vigor to the broken-down frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both sexes and all ages in

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.
Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wasted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthy invigorant. For indigestion, and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A word to the Aged.
In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.
As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

For Females.
Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility, and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and enlightens the depressed mental powers, as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any reaction.

Mace Sloper, Esq., in the Knickerbocker, tells the following story, which, funny as it is in conception, is yet improved by the finished manner in which it is related:

There was a 'fellow' once stepped out of the door of a tavern on the Mississippi, meaning to walk a mile up the shore to the next tavern. Just at the landing there lay a big raft, one of the old-fashioned whalers—a raft a mile long.

Well, the fellow heard the landlord say the raft was a mile long, and he said unto himself: "I will go forth and see this great wonder, and let mine eyes behold the timber which the hand of man hath hewn." So he got on at the lower end, and began to ambulate over the wood in pretty fair time. But just as he got started, the raft started too, and as he walked up the river, it walked down, both traveling at about the same rate. When he got to the end of the sticks, he found they were pretty near here, and in sight of a tavern; so he landed and walked straight into the bar-room he'd come out of. The general sameness of things took him a little aback, but he looked the landlord steady in the face, and settled it in his own way:

"Publican," said he, "are you gifted with any twin brother, who keep a similar-sized tavern, with a duplicate wife, a corresponding wood-pile and corresponding circus-bills, a mile off from here?"

The tavern keeper was fond of fun, and accordingly said that it was just so.

"And, Publican, have you among your dry-goods for the entertainment of man and horse, any whisky of the same size as that of your brother?"

And the tavern man said, that from the rising of the sun, even unto the going of the same, he had.

They took drinks, when the stranger said: "Publican, that twin brother of yours is a mighty fine man—a very fine man, indeed. But do you know I'm afeerd he suffers a good deal with the Chicago diptheria."

"And what's that?" asked the toddy-sticker.

"It's when the truth settles so firm in a man that none of it ever comes out. Common doctors, of the calcip sort, call it lyin'. When I left your brother's confectionery, there was a raft at his door, which he swore his life to, was a mile long. Well, publican, I walked that raft from bill to tail, from his door to yourn. Now, I know my time, an' I am just as good for myself as for a hoss, and better for that than any man you ever did see. I always walk a mile in exactly twenty minutes on a good road, and I'll be busted with an overloaded Injun gun if I've been more'n ten minutes coming here, stepping over the blamed logs at that."

STUBBORN FACTS IN MCCLELLAN'S RECORD.—In June, 1862, the Richmond Dispatch published the following article, the substance of which appears in the rebel history of the war now in our possession. It was copied into the New York Tribune and other journals of the country, and has never been and cannot be disproved:

"A MILITARY ADVENTURER.—In the early part of this war Gen. McClellan wrote to a distinguished officer in the South expressing his desire to serve in the Confederate Army. If he dare deny the fact—and his recent reports prove that in mendacity he is the representative man of the Yankee nation—it can be demonstrated by such evidence as will close his lips in eternal silence. When he was at West Point, he affected to fraternize especially with those from the South, and to have little sympathy with those of his own section. We dare say this was genuine, and that he really was anxious to serve under Jeff Davis in this war, but the high bribe offered by Lincoln was too much for his easy virtue. He was not the man to sacrifice interest for sentiment, and of late has shown a disposition to become as extreme in his antagonism as in his friendship for the South."

Commenting on the above, the Richmond Whig added:

"After the battle of Rich Mountain McClellan declared to Confederate officers, who were prisoners of war, that he would much rather be leading an army against Massachusetts than Virginia. This can be proved by unimpeachable authority, if denied. This boasted soldier and 'gentleman' of the North is as much a hierling and adventurer as any Hessian in his ranks. If he has any conscience, it rebukes him daily for the base work in which he is employed. When to the pangs of remorse is added the shame of defeat, his condition will be such as even an enemy may pity."

To this, Col. Metcalf, of Kentucky, adds his testimony, as follows:

"I got my eyes opened on that young Napoleon in the spring of 1861. I went to see Gen. McClellan, and in the course of conversation I said to him that Jeff Davis was a scoundrel and a repudiator. He (McClellan) straightened himself up quickly, and said: "I assure you, sir, that you are mistaken. Jefferson Davis is a perfect gentleman, and will not do anything unbecoming a gentleman." Well, if a traitor, conspirator, thief, repudiator and the civil devil, who is instigating all this murder, is his beau ideal of a 'perfect gentleman,' I hope our country will never be cursed with his morality and virtue at the head of affairs."

Could the most exacting of men require anything additional to damn him!—American Flag.

WEEKLY COMMERCIAL REVIEW.

PORTLAND, Friday November 4th—2 P. M.

Business for the week has been somewhat less than for the same length of time since October 1st. The receipts of country produce have materially diminished, in consequence of the late rains we presume, which have given the farmers an excellent opportunity for fall seeding, which they appear to be improving of.

Wheat is still advancing. A good quality commands on the street to-day $1 50 @$1 60 per bushel. This is mainly owing to the demand for export.

Flour is steady at former prices; ruling at $8 25@$8 50 for ordinary country brands, but few transactions are noted.

Oats are offering at about the standard price of 60 cents per bushel. Very little is coming in at present.

The market is very well supplied with all kinds of game. Duck, quail, pheasant, etc., command from $2 50 to $3 00 per dozen, from first hands. Chickens are worth $4 per doz.

Vegetables are plentiful, and the price for most kinds, including potatoes, is 25 cents per bushel.

The price of eggs remain high, in consequence of a speculative feeling in furnishing for the San Francisco market. Good fresh eggs command 55a65 cents per dozen from dealers to-day.

The steamship Sierra Nevada which is to leave the mouth of the Willamette for Victoria and San Francisco to-morrow A. M., will take about 375 tons of freight from Portland, for the above ports. Her treasure list will not be equal to the last shipment, by the Brother Jonathan last week, but there is a large amount available for shipment to-day, and at least half a million will go down by this vessel, in hands of passengers and otherwise.

The question of further improvement of our river channel by dredging is still being agitated, and there is a prospect that some of the sands may be removed yet the present season. The importance of the matter recommends itself to the people, and they see at once that they will gain by adopting prompt measures.

There are three vessels now due at this port: The bark Industry, which will be up from San Francisco to-morrow, the bark Atlantic, from the same port, is now out nine days—the steamer George S. Wright, from Sitka.

Proclamation.

STATE OF OREGON, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
October 24th, 1864.

WHEREAS, I have received a requisition from Major General Irvin McDowell, commanding the Department of the Pacific, acting under the authority of the War Department, [illegible] one regiment of infantry, in addition to the volunteers [illegible] in the United States, to aid in the enforcement of the laws, suppress [illegible] insurrection and invasion, and [illegible] in this military district;

Now, therefore, I, ADDISON C. GIBBS, Governor of the State of Oregon, and Commander-in-Chief of the Militia thereof, do hereby call upon the [illegible] of this State to organize themselves into companies sufficient to fill the foregoing requisition.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand, [L. S.] and caused the seal of the State of Oregon to be affixed. Done at Salem this 24th day of October, A. D. 1864.
ADDISON C. GIBBS,
Governor of Oregon.

Attest: SAMUEL E. MAY, Secretary of State.

The following is hereby promulgated: The plan of recruiting and organizing the Regiment will be as follows, until further notice:

[illegible]

The regiment will be known as the First Infantry, Oregon Volunteers. The field staff and line officers will be commissioned by the Governor. The State will be divided into districts according to the number of persons in each district liable to do military duty. When such district [illegible] there will be no draft in the same [illegible]. Each district will furnish one company.

Commissions will be issued by the Governor to company officers, conditioned that they shall recruit their respective companies, and be ready to be mustered into the service, within a time hereafter to be named.

A company rendezvous will be established at some central point in each district, and [illegible] all recruits will be retained there until the company is filled and ready to be mustered into service.

The State has provided by law for the payment of a bounty of $[illegible] in State [illegible] bonds, payable in gold to each volunteer mustered into the service, in addition to the bounties authorized to be paid by the United States. (See statutes 1864, page 48.)

The wages of a soldier, in addition, are $16 per month, besides clothing, subsistence, rations, and allowances, furnished by the United States. (See statutes 1863, page 602.)

ORGANIZATION.

The proper organization and strength of a regiment of infantry is as follows:

One (1) colonel, one (1) lieutenant colonel, one (1) major, one (1) adjutant (an extra lieutenant), one (1) quartermaster (an extra lieutenant), one (1) surgeon, two (2) assistant surgeons, one (1) chaplain, one (1) sergeant major, one (1) regimental quartermaster sergeant, one (1) regimental commissary sergeant and one (1) hospital steward. Ten companies form a regiment.

COMPANY OF INFANTRY.

One (1) captain, one (1) 1st lieutenant, one (1) 2d lieutenant, one (1) 1st sergeant, four (4) sergeants, eight (8) corporals, two (2) musicians, one (1) wagoner, sixty-four (64) privates, minimum, and eighty-two (82) privates, maximum, besides the non-commissioned officers.

Musicians may be enlisted in each company, who will be rated and paid as privates.

The following is the estimated

QUOTA OF MEN DUE FROM EACH COUNTY:

To the County Officers!

Other States have filled with commendable promptitude every call that has been made upon them. The people have a very natural repugnance to a draft, under which every drafted man must serve or furnish a substitute. Under it there must inevitably be some cases of severe but necessary hardship. Opportunity is now given to avoid such a draft. The men are needed promptly, and every consideration of patriotism and of State, local and personal pride requires that you commence promptly and prosecute vigorously the business of obtaining volunteers. The officers of the State feeling the most earnest desire that the entire State should avoid a draft, appeal to the patriotic citizens of your county, through you who are their officers and legal and natural representatives. As guardians of their rights and of their honor, it is incumbent upon you to respond to this appeal by earnest and successful work. Call to your aid the assistance of the active and influential citizens of the county. Let every loyal citizen of the county understand, and, if possible, induce him to realize that he has an immediate and personal interest in the success of your efforts. If necessary, call meetings in your school-districts and bring the matter home to every inhabitant. Funds will be needed to pay expenses, not provided for by law. Let subscriptions be circulated in each county for that purpose and preserve a record of the names of the donors among the archives of the county. In short, the Governor, upon whom the requisition is made, expects, and justly, that you will respond to this call upon you with an earnestness of purpose which shall insure success. Due notice of the districting of the State will be given as soon as it can be made.

HAVING BEEN IN THE BUSINESS FOR YEARS, I am prepared, I think, to render entire satisfaction in the making and repairing of Bonnets, Cloaks, Dresses, Ladies', and Children's Clothing, etc. etc. No pains or expense will be spared in securing the latest and most approved Fashions. Particular attention paid to bleaching Bonnets, Hats, etc, etc.

Thankful for former liberal patronage, I hope to merit a continuance of the same by my work. Please give me a call. Orders from a distance promptly attended to.

A Greenback Case.

HAVING been compelled to accept of Legal Tender Notes at par since the 17th day of December, 1862, for the rent of my handsome Brick Store, corner of Morrison and Front streets, I feel compelled to announce for the benefit of the public at large that

Jacob Mayer

Leased the building of me on the 17th day of February, 1862, for a term of years, at which time there was no such currency in vogue, and it was understood the terms were CASH. Since the date above stated I have received the depreciated currency regularly under protest for the rent of the

CITY OF PARIS STORE,

Making less than two-fifths of the real amount said Mayer was to pay. He had secured the building at very advantageous rates and even were he now to comply with his contract, and pay in COIN, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantage of the times to convert a few dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see what it costs to have such tenants.

ALLEN'S

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

ASTHMA, CROUP,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest or Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that IT IS WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION! IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

From the army hospital—the bloody battle-field—the mansion of the rich and humble abode of the poor—from the office and the [illegible]—from the mountain tops, distant valleys and far-off islands of the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world—is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands upon thousands of letters like the following may be seen at our office.

[illegible], Wis., Sept 16, 1864.

* * * I have been in the army hospitals for fourteen months—speechless and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill., they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. * * * Three bottles restored my speech and cured me. * * *
C. A. FLAUTZ.

SOUTH WARSAW, O., July 28, 1863.

* * * One bottle of your Bitters [illegible] [illegible] years [illegible] and Erysipelas, after trying the doctors and [illegible] without benefit [illegible] by ten bottles of your Bitters.
EDWARD WOUNALL.

The following is from the manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

HAVEMEYER MANSION, [illegible]
New York, August 2, 1863.

DR. DRAKE: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs with most happy effect. One little girl in [illegible] with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well. Respectfully, MRS. O. M. DEVOE.

* * * I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.
REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y.

* * * Thou wilt send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefitted by their use.
Thy friend, ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa.

* * * I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and had to abandon preaching. * * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me.
REV. J. S. CATHORN, Rochester, N. Y.

* * * Send us twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which are daily increasing with the guests of our house.
SYKES, CHADWICK & CO.,
Proprietors Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C.

* * * I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect.
G. W. ANDREWS,
Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O.

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business.
H. B. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O.

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.
C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway, N. Y.
etc. etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivaled as a remedy for the permanent cure for the maladies above mentioned, and also

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY, LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease any way connected with the disorder or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once reinforced, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step, his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom, or an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor. The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER,
INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, AND CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGURY AND BURNING
OR PAINFUL
URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females.

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DIScovery of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to over-estimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is to act upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless, until Dr Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve without a solvent. This considered impossible by the scientific world is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr. J. R. Chilton of this city, and Prof. Booth, U. S. Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals, and is recommended to practitioners (see American Medical Monthly, July 6, 1856, page [illegible].)

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER.

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; he who came relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

OYSTERS! OYSTERS!

Louis McMurray & Co., Baltimore.

THE ATTENTION OF THE TRADE IS PARTICUlarly requested to the above fine brand of Oysters. Messrs. McMurray & Co. claim to be the only firm that still adheres to the plan of canning the Oyster in its raw state by hand, thus preserving intact its native delicacy and flavor. The superiority of this method over the one in general use, of steaming the Oysters in bulk in order to open them, whereby the natural liquor is lost and a manufactured one has to be substituted, is apparent, and recommends itself to all who have given this brand a trial.

The undersigned are receiving fresh invoices by each arrival of clippers from New York, which they offer to the trade on favorable terms.
